Functions – Complete

- * The Hunter Safety Class was full – approximately 65 people registered. The club cooked and served food and made a small profit. Brian Waterman was the cook!
- * Tony had his infamous Lamb feed on 16 Feb08 and had 27 attendees and made a small profit.
- * The Game Supper was on 3 March 07. It was a full house, profit was made and the food was excellent! Charlie Payne was the coordinator and Fig and Tony were the master chiefs.
- * Jeff Degnan ran the raffle. Some great prizes were given out! As a joke some prankster supplied Jeff with Dane's ticket number and Jeff called the number as the grand prize winner and Dane had a pick of anything on the prize table which was nothing! Everyone had a good laugh including Dane.

ACTIVITIES

- * The Boat Safety Class was also held in February and attendance was low and hopefully more folks will sign up for it next year.
- * Club members gave a big applause of appreciation for all volunteers, who worked, organized or donated for this month activities.

NEW BUSINESS

- * Voted to let Ed Pollack rent the club on 4 Oct 2008.
- * Voted to let Kevin Berube lead a group of volunteers to wash & wax the club floor.
- * The Barre Police Dept through Kevin Cooley requested to hold a night shoot on 21 March. President Barry Peddle wants to get a few more details and will contact Kevin.
- * Vice President Chris Duggan is the POC for keys & new membership request.
- * Secretary Ralph Gendron has copies of Club rules and policies for new members.
