THE OUTDOORSMAN'S CORNER (POC – JOHN BILLINGS)

The wildlife are up, around and all about. Please be careful driving as they are everywhere this year! Also, great opportunities to glass up some animals in a chance to scout ahead of the season! The New Hampshire & Rhode Island Archery season has opened and Zone 9 – 14 doe tags are available online for the taking.

Dan Luks and his son Jordan had the good fortune of harvesting this 820 lb Bull Moose in the Allagash, ME, Congrats Dan to you and glad you were able to bring your son along!

John Billings' Cow Elk (2nd consecutive year of success in the back-country!) and Grouse harvested on a trip to Colorado in mid-September 2022.

Please forward your pictures and hunting stories as we'd love to include you in future issues to John Billings.

ANNUAL FALL SPORTSMEN'S CLASSIC

This year's Fall Sportsmen's Classic was held beginning at 5 pm at our own Barre Sportsman's Club on Sunday, September 25th. Several the club members won firearms and raffle prizes, the event was a resounding success, and all tickets were sold out again!

*12th Annual Sportsmen's Fall Classic
Barre Sportsmen's Saturday, September 24, 2022*

Some of the swag raffled off

UPLAND BIRDS, TURKEY, AND SMALL GAME (POC – MIKE WOOD)

Massachusetts Wildlife Fish and Game - Wild turkey hunting regulations | Mass.gov

Turkey, Bear and Deer are quickly coming into focus in Massachusetts! Get your tags and stands set ahead of these quickly approaching seasons! New Hampshire and Rhode Island began the Deer season in mid-September. Good Luck all!
